ROBBERS WORK ON STREET CAR

CHICAGO, May 1.—Three robbers fought a battle with the passengers of a Madison-street electric car today after robbing one man. They finally escaped in a shower of bullets. The bandits ran through Union Park, followed by two detectives and a score of pedestrians and disappeared in Randolph street.

William Cummings, a real estate dealer from Cheyenne, Wyo., was the victim. He lost his watch and $20. When the car neared Ashland boulevard Cummings was pressed against the rear door by one man, while a second took his watch and pocket-book. He struggled and shouted for assistance. Other passengers came to his rescue, and the men leaped from the car. Detectives Baldwin and Werthermer were passengers on the car, and they took up the chase, assisted by a number of pedestrians, and fired several shots at the thieves, but they escaped.

SAME SYMPTOMS.
"My love," said he, "is like the sea."
And the maiden answered quick:
"I think it quite likely you're right—
For they both make me sick."

EAGLES AND ELKS GETTING ANXIOUS

AS TIME FOR GREAT GAME APPROACHES PRINCIPALS ARE GETTING NERVOUS.

As the time for the great Eagles-Elks ball game grows nearer the excitement becomes intense. There are things doing at nearly every turn. Wednesday night the Elks initiated C. C. Rogers and H. P. Hurd, two of Tonopah's well known ball players, into their organization. And the Eagles, not to be outdone, at their meeting last night placed the wings on Lem Platt and Jack Peck.

From indications the Eagles are going to put forth every effort to regain the laurels lost at last year's game, when they were defeated by the Elks with a score of 17 to 10.

"I look for a close score," said Chief Malley last night. "According to the dope book it should be somewhere around 34 to 32 in our favor. Of course if the Eagles get onto a batting streak, the score may be larger. In last year's game I was unable to play my best as I was suffering from a severe attack of gout, and whenever I went to the bat some Elk would whisper that the keg on third was empty, and that would discourage me. But this year it is different. I have been training on limburger cheese and beer and am in fine form."

"Correct," said Detective Bob White, the chief's bodyguard, and who used to play ball when he was young. "I've been training him on the very dope that made me famous."

Good work, Tobiasco.
And now, listen to this. The Eagles have recovered their goat! At a late hour last night a committee of the Eagles informed this office that the animal was once more in his accustomed place and that joy again prevails in the camp of the feathered ones. They refused to state how the recovery was made, but it is surmised that they entered the camp of the Elks while they were sleeping and made away with the precious animal.

GRUB ON BEACH FOR THEIR FOOD

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 30.—With no work in sight for four or five weeks, and the majority of them without any money, Prince Rupert's population is in a bad way, and today men are eking out an existence by living on fish and clams. In spite of warnings issued by the Grand Trunk Pacific and the shipping companies, a horde of men descended on the northern port and camped on every available site, and at present there are 1000 men idle in the camp.

Those who have money are managing fairly well, but a number went in with little more than their fare, and it is these who are at present reaping the consequences of the ill-advised rush to a town in its embryo state. Provisions are high and the unfortunate men without wealth have been reduced to the status of the Siwash and are "back to nature," grubbing on the beach and among the rocks for food.
